

COLORADO HUMANITIES BUDGET POLICIES

1. The annual budget shall be balanced; expenses shall not exceed revenues.
2. No new Colorado Humanities-initiated programs can be included in the budget unless the funding to support the program is specifically identified and included in the budget.

The board should develop a policy concerning regrants that is consistent with the programming and planning initiatives approved by the board.