FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

An Evening with Author Pam Houston

GREENWOOD VILLAGE, CO (November 13, 2020) Friends of the Lyons Regional Library will host an online book reading and discussion with author Pam Houston on Tuesday, November 17 at 7 p.m. in partnership with Colorado Humanities through the Colorado Center for the Book Speakers Bureau.

Pam Houston won the 2020 Colorado Book Award in Creative Nonfiction for her book Deep Creek: Finding Hope in the High Country. In addition to Deep Creek, Houston has published two novels, two collections of short stories, and a collection of essays. Her stories have been selected for volumes of The O. Henry Awards, The Pushcart Prize, Best American Travel Writing, and Best American Short Stories of the Century among other anthologies. She is the winner of the Western States Book Award, the WILLA Award for contemporary fiction, the Evil Companions Literary Award and several teaching awards.
