FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2021 Colorado Book Awards Submissions Due January 8, 2021

GREENWOOD VILLAGE, CO (December 15, 2020) The 2021 Colorado Book Awards submissions are due to Colorado Humanities & Center for the Book no later than January 8, 2021. You can find guidelines and entry forms at coloradohumanities.org. The Colorado Book Awards celebrate the accomplishments of Colorado's outstanding authors, editors, illustrators, and photographers. Now in their 30th year, the awards are presented in at least ten categories including anthology/collection, biography, children's literature, creative nonfiction, fiction, history, nonfiction, pictorial, poetry, and young adult literature.

Volunteers Needed to Select and Judge Colorado Book Awards

Be the first to read what leading members of Colorado's book community are creating by participating as a Colorado Book Awards selector or judge. Colorado Humanities and Center for the Book seeks applications from a diverse mix of Colorado readers (e.g., scholars, librarians, booksellers, teachers, writers, reviewers, and avid readers) from across the state. To volunteer, please complete the application form at coloradohumanities.submittable.com/submit.

The Colorado Center for the Book was established in 1989 and became a program department of Colorado Humanities (est. 1974) in 2004. Colorado Humanities is the only Colorado organization exclusively dedicated to supporting humanities education for adults and children statewide. Celebrating its 46th year and its 16th year as host for the Colorado Center for the Book, Colorado Humanities is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit working in partnership with the National Endowment for the Humanities, The Library of Congress Center for the Book, the Smithsonian Institution, and the national award-winning educational nonprofit Motheread, Inc.
