Changing the Legacy of Race and Ethnicity: Conversations for One America

On Wednesday, December 9 at 7 p.m. Dr. Rosemarie Allen will moderate an online panel presentation titled 'Talking to Children about Race.' Rosemarie is President and CEO of the Institute for Racial Equity & Excellence and a Metropolitan State University of Denver Associate Professor of Early Childhood Education. This session aims to provide parents and caregivers with skills to have these discussions at a pivotal time in our shared history. Register for free and submit your questions for the panelists here.

This is the second event in Colorado Humanities' "Changing the Legacy of Race & Ethnicity" series with the goal to drive a broad discussion across our state as well as action around the issues of race and social justice in our state. The first panel presentation, 'How Did We Get Here?' aired on the Colorado Humanities YouTube and Facebook pages, and can be viewed by clicking those links.

Our community partners include NAACP Aurora Colorado, History Colorado, Colorado Anti-Defamation League, Aurora Public Library, Boulder Museum of Contemporary Art, Colorado Black Chamber of Commerce, Colorado Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, Pine River Library, Colorado Council of Churches, and Mexican Cultural Center Denver.

Our sponsors include The Durango Herald, Arapahoe Libraries, and GroundFloor Media and CenterTable. Our media sponsors include Rocky Mountain Public Media and The Durango Herald.

2021 Colorado Book Awards call for submissions!

We are accepting submissions for books first published in 2020 by Colorado writers, editors, illustrators, and photographers. Finalists will be announced in March and read in April 2021. Winners will be announced in May. Learn more and submit your work here.

Volunteers are needed to help select finalists and winners! Colorado Humanities & Center for the Book's Book Awards Advisory Committee assigns volunteer selectors and judges to panels of diverse readers (e.g., scholars, librarians, booksellers, teachers, and writers) from across the state. Selectors help choose three finalist books in a Colorado Book Award category and then Judges help choose a Colorado Book Award winner from the three finalists. If you are interested in volunteering to select or judge for the 2021 Colorado Book Awards, please submit an application. Details can be found here.
