History Live Durango Returns This September

DURANGO, CO (August 27, 2021)

Join History Live Durango in a series of free, online, or in-person events throughout the entire month of September celebrating the humanities in Southwest Colorado.

This year's program schedule will feature a diverse mix of lectures, living history portrayals, author talks, and more. A full list of events can be found by visiting prlibrary.org/history-live-durango or coloradohumanities.org

These events were organized by the Southwest Colorado Humanities Roundtable, a regional collaborative of nonprofit organizations who produce public humanities programs with the mission to advance the group's shared goals and preserve resources to engage more people through cooperative calendaring and marketing.

Colorado Humanities is the only Colorado organization exclusively dedicated to supporting humanities education for adults and children statewide.
