Spend a spine-tingling morning in the parlor of Edgar Allan Poe as he recounts the tormented true tales of his life and how they led to his classic tales of terror. Do not look away as the father of the modern horror story reveals the darkness that lurks in us all, taking us on a journey into the catacombs of our deepest fears. Hear him recite "The Raven" and "The Tell-Tale Heart" as well as some of his lesser known work, work that has inspired generations of writers, writers that have dared to follow in his daunting footsteps.
