The Five States of Colorado* Premiere April 6

A new documentary produced by HaveyPro Cinema and Colorado Humanities, The Five States of Colorado, will premiere in Denver at the Denver Botanic Gardens' new Freyer Newman Center on April 6, 2023. The documentary will address the history and issues within the five regions, or "states" of Southern Colorado, Western Colorado, the Eastern Plains, the Front Range, and Metropolitan Denver, and is designed to inform, educate, and serve as a basis for community and classroom discussion. Following the Denver premiere, The Five States of Colorado will be screened regionally throughout the state and made available as a free, streaming video or download to every public, school, and academic library in Colorado. For tickets to the premiere, visit our store.

The Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo in Colorado

One hundred and seventy-five years after the end of the Mexican-American war, History Colorado Center will host pages from the original Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, on display inside the Borderlands of Southern Colorado exhibition. The Borderlands exhibition explores the implications of shifting borders, cultures, and land rights—the historical ripples these treaty pages set in motion. Witness this rare display of the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo at the History Colorado Center through May 22.
