Donate on Dec. 7 to
Colorado Humanities

Colorado Gives Day

December 7 is Colorado Gives Day. We look forward to this day each year, and take heart from watching donations to Colorado Humanities come in. Will you join the Colorado Gives Day effort and donate to Colorado Humanities, too?

Please make a note to visit our Colorado Gives profile before December 7 to schedule your donation or on December 7.

Another thing you can do to help our work is create a personalized fundraising campaign page on our Colorado Gives profile. It's easy to do, and a great way to reach out to people to help you support Colorado Humanities!

To create a fundraising page, login to your existing Colorado Gives donor account or create one, and click the 'Start a Fundraiser' button on our profile. Then let others know how to find it.

Need more help? This video on how to create a ColoradoGives.org fundraising page will help. You can also email us at tucker@coloradohumanities.org.

Your fundraising page can include:

- A personal appeal
- Photos and video
- Why you'd like people to give to Colorado Humanities
- A fundraising goal that can track your progress
- When you want the campaign to end

Check out our profile for ideas about how to talk about Colorado Humanities and send the link to people you contact.
