

MEET MARY SHELLEY

JEFFERSON
UNITARIAN CHURCH
14350 W. 32ND AVE,
GOLDEN, COLORADO,
80401

OCTOBER 22
4 P.M.

Mary Shelley's groundbreaking novel Frankenstein, poses the question: What if someone discovered the secret to creating life? It then explores the ramification of such a discovery: Are we capable of managing our technological creations? Ironically, much of the story of this fantastical, wretched, hideous creature draws on or parallels Mary's experience as an intelligent daughter of two notable middle-class authors and consort/wife of an aristocrat poet.

Susan Marie Frontczak has given over 850 presentations as Marie Curie, Mary Shelley, Irene Castle, Clara Barton, Eleanor Roosevelt, and Erma Bombeck in her 21 years as a Living History scholar. She also works with adults and youth to develop their own Chautauqua presentations.

In Chautauqua tradition, Susan Marie will first take questions as the character, then answer questions as the scholar/actor. This event is free and open to the public.
